

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP OF NICA BY DIRECT ENTRY

Why Join NICA Through Direct Entry?

- The value of NICA membership being a professional body established by Law has never been greater - from economic-wide to industry recognition which enhanced career opportunities by accessing the latest professional insights, and guidance in the global credit ecosystem.
- The offering of nationally and globally recognized dual designation in credit administration - FICA, MICA, AICA and CCCA
- Exclusive benefits via business growth networking congregation
- Participate in the National Credit Managers Conference - annually
- Credit sector events and updates in all the credit market space
- Stand the chance to receive the prestigious Nigeria Credit Industry Awards - annually
- Outstanding thought leadership interviews and article, ensuring that you are published on the NICA home-page every Tuesday at the helm of the latest industry developments and information

To Apply For NICA Direct Entry Professional Membership, You Must:

Meet the qualification and experience requirements set out below:

- A business leader, an elite, any educated person, an entrepreneur, a corporate leader, all of whom can be in any part of the world, are qualified to join the professional membership of the National Institute of Credit Administration (NICA) by direct entry as an Associate (AICA) of the Institute. The professional certification programme of NICA is also open to them for registration and participation.
- In accordance with NICA Act No 26 of 2022, all persons working, managing or own a business organization that grants, provides, receives or utilizes credit; be it financial credit, trade credit, business to business credit, or consumer credit or have at any point in time employed credit for the expansion of business are enjoined to register as members of NICA.

“GO BACK TO HOMEPAGE TO SELECT
MEMBERSHIP CATEGORY – AICA,
MICA OR FICA.”